

STATE SWEEP BY THE DEMOCRATS

was elected by a majority of 372, with 675 votes cast. The election for a $20,000 bond issue for road improvements was carried.

The Democratic nominees in Warwick county had no opposition.

NEW KENT—JAMES CITY DISTRICT

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., November 5.—Judge T. Ashby Wickham, for the Senate, and W. B. Goffigan, for the House, had no opposition in James City county. The only county candidate with opposition was Sheriff W. W. Vane, who, with one precinct to hear from, has thirty majority over H. G. Spencer, Independent. The other two precincts to be heard from will not change the result.

Mr. Goffigan is elected to the House from the district embracing New Kent, Charles City, James City, York, Warwick and Williamsburg.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., November 5.—The Democratic ticket had no opposition in York county except C. H. Shields, for Commonwealth's attorney, who was opposed by Judge Sidney Smith, Independent. Shields's majority is 85.

NORFOLK AND PORTSMOUTH

NORFOLK, VA., November 5.—Regular Democratic nominees in Norfolk won hands down to-day with one of the quietest elections and the smallest proportionate votes in history. The vote was cast with very little opposition. The first precinct in the second ward is still to be heard from, there is no doubt of the results. The vote stands as follows: W. W. Sale, for the Senate, 1,142; W. W. Old, for the House of Delegates, 1,078; M. T. Cook, for the House of Delegates, 969; W. H. Gunn, who ran for the House of Delegates on an Independent ticket, received only 230 votes.

In Portsmouth Claude N. Markham, who ran for the House of Delegates without opposition, received only 479 votes. An extremely light poll was cast. Owing to the fact that telephone service in Isle of Wight county has been crippled through several lines of wire being damaged to-day, the count in that district could not be secured. General results showed that Sheriff R. H. Edwards and the present board of supervisors had been re-elected by a large majority.

NORTHUMBERLAND AND WEST-NORFOLK

HEATHSVILLE, VA., November 5.—Election for Northumberland county, C. Harding Walker for the Senate, J. T. Jett, House of Delegates, Clarence L. Towles for Commonwealth's attorney, James E. Boothe, treasurer, William E. Flint, sheriff, E. W. Eichelberger was elected justice for Heathsville District and John E. Jett supervisor. Mr. Betts was opposed by Howard Gill and Mr. Joseph C. Beane.

The fight for supervisor was a hot one, and each candidate was confident of election. The vote stood: Betts, 63; Gill, 51; Beane, 23.

ORANGE

ORANGE, VA., November 5.—The election here to-day was a very quiet affair. There was very little interest shown, and consequently a light vote cast; not half the usual vote. For Congress Carlin (Democrat) received 380; Howard (Republican), 50; for State Senate, Carter, 400; for House of Delegates, C. C. Tallaferra, 425.

The following county officers were elected without opposition: For Commonwealth's attorney, A. T. Browning; for treasurer, W. H. Ricketts; for sheriff, Lee Fannell.

GORDONSVILLE, VA., November 5.—Returns from Orange and Gordonsville show Carlin's majority over Howard 164 at this precinct. Tallaferra and Carter each received 52 votes, Browning Ricketts each 53 and Fannell, for sheriff, 51.

LURAY, VA., November 5.—In the election in Page county to-day N. T. Sedwick, the present sheriff, defeated J. A. Hammer by about 600 majority. The vote between S. J. Richey, Democrat, and J. R. Huffman, Republican candidate for treasurer, is close, and Richey has probably been elected by about eleven majority.

For the State Senate, Parks, Democrat, has carried the county by a good majority. This will be increased by the other counties of the district, Clarke and Warren. For the Legislature, the vote between H. H. Haskins, Democrat, and Seekford, Independent, is very close, though Seekford will have a big majority in Rappahannock. The minor county officers elected will probably be divided evenly between the Democrats and Republicans.

PATRICK

STUART, VA., November 5.—Ten precincts out of nineteen in Patrick give D. H. Wood, Democrat, 113 majority over Barnard for the House of Delegates. It looks like Wood is elected by a small majority. These same precincts give Parsons, Republican, a small majority over Branscome for the Senate. The county will be close between Branscome and Parsons. Hooker, Republican, is elected treasurer by a safe majority. Boaz, Democrat, is elected sheriff by a large majority. Woolwine, Democrat, is elected Commonwealth attorney without opposition.

PITTSYLVANIA AND DANVILLE

DANVILLE, VA., November 5.—The election in Danville and Pittsylvania county to-day resulted in a sweeping victory for all of the Democratic nominees over the Independents. Every ward in the city and thirty-three out of the forty-six precincts in the county give W. A. Garrett, former Senator from Henry and Pittsylvania county and the city of Danville, a majority of 681 over J. B. McCormick (Independent). Garrett will carry Henry by over 200.

Reports so far show the re-election of Major George T. Rison for Senator from Danville and Pittsylvania county over W. T. Wilson by a majority of over 1,000. The remaining precincts will not materially alter the result. W. N.

Brown, S. P. Clement and S. H. Wilson were re-elected to the House of Delegates by a majority of between 700 and 800 over W. A. Moorman, who was leading the Independent ticket.

All of the present county officers who were running on the Democratic ticket have won out over their independent opponents by large majorities, and the vote polled was light. The election passed off quietly both here and in the county. The Independents put up a strenuous fight, but failed everywhere to poll the votes they claimed.

The total vote cast in Danville was: For Senate (Twenty-third District), Garrett, 526; McCormick, 207. For Senate (Twenty-fourth District), Rison, 618; Wilson, 225. For House of Delegates, Brown, 626; Clements, 479; Wilson, 509; Cooke, 144; Comer, 114; Moorman, 294.

PETERSBURG AND DINWIDDIE

PETERSBURG, VA., November 5.—A very light vote was polled here to-day. Charles Trotter Lassiter unopposed Democratic nominee for reelection to the State Senate from the district composed of Petersburg and Dinwiddie county, received 331 votes in this city. Robert Bolling Willcox, Jr., unopposed Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates from this city, received 322 votes.

In Dinwiddie county returns from Ramey, New Hope, White Oak, Precincts, Dinwiddie Courthouse, Monks Neck, Brookland and Sutherlands give John Hargrave, Democratic nominee for county treasurer, a majority of 65 over S. Y. Gilliam, Independent Republican candidate for re-election.

Several precincts in the county are yet to be heard from. The Gilliam-Hargrave contest was the only one in this county which was in doubt. Thomas E. Clarke, the Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates from Dinwiddie, and Dr. William E. Daniel, Democratic nominee for the House from the district composed of Prince George and Surry counties were unopposed.

PRINCE EDWARD

FARMVILLE, VA., November 5.—Jno. J. Owen was returned to the House of Delegates from Prince Edward without opposition. For county officers the entire Democratic ticket nominated in the recent primary, was elected without an opposing candidate. The officers elected are Commonwealth's attorney, A. D. Watkins; treasurer, S. W. Watkins; supervisor, Farmville district; J. L. Hart, Lockett district; R. H. Walton; Buffalo district; Warren Fiqua; Hampden district; Dr. William Holliday; Leigh district, A. A. Haskins.

PRINCE WILLIAM

MANASSAS, VA., November 5.—Prince William county polled 1,199 votes to-day. There was a small Republican vote cast. Returns indicate that J. J. Davies is elected for Commonwealth's attorney by 150 majority.

POWELLATON

BELONA, VA., November 5.—M. T. Swann was elected treasurer to-day by about 500, and G. A. Baugh sheriff, by a small majority. The Democratic nominees for the General Assembly had no opposition.

CLOTHES NEWS.

VOL. 2. NEW YORK MAIL. NO. 2.

Weddings

Miss Fluffy Ruffles, of New York, was married last evening to Mr. Smart Lee Drest, of Richmond. The clothes of the groom, his best man and ushers were selected at Jacobs & Levy's, 705 East Broad Street.

Complete unofficial returns from Roanoke county show the reelection of State Senator George B. Kezell by a majority of approximately 400. Dr. H. M. Rogers and P. B. F. Good, incumbents, and Democrats, are re-elected to the House of Delegates by majorities of about 500.

In the contests for county officers Commonwealth's Attorney George N. Conrad was unopposed. County Treasurer E. W. Carpenter is re-elected by about 600 majority. E. J. Carlehoft is elected sheriff by over 600 majority. Of the five county supervisors elected there are Democrats and two Republicans. The majority of the magistrates chosen are Democrats.

RICHMOND CITY

The vote in Richmond, a table of which is printed elsewhere, was small, and the Democratic nominees were all elected.

ROANOKE CITY AND COUNTY

ROANOKE, VA., November 5.—A. Bruce Hunt, Democrat, was elected to the House of Delegates over M. M. Caldwell, Republican, by 715 majority. John M. Hart, Democrat, for the Senate, had no opposition.

M. Bowman, Democrat, for the House from Roanoke county, had no opponent.

SCOTT

GATE CITY, VA., November 5.—There was no opposition to the following Republican nominees in Scott county: For Sheriff, C. C. Broadwater; for House of Delegates, C. S. Pendleton; for Commonwealth's attorney, J. P. Carns. W. W. Ramey, nominee for treasurer, was opposed by W. E. Taylor, Independent Democrat. Owing to the telephone lines being down, the returns from the treasurer's election cannot be received before to-morrow, but it is probable Ramey has been elected. There is no opposition to J. C. Noel for Senate.

SHENANDOAH

WOODSTOCK, VA., November 5.—Complete but unofficial returns from twenty-eight precincts in Shenandoah county show Robert M. Ward, Democratic candidate for State Senate from the Tenth Senatorial District, carried the county by 164 majority over Robert J. Walker.

Burder B. Bowman, Republican representative to the House of Delegates, is elected by 25 majority over Dr. C. O. Miller (Democrat).

Rush H. Williams (Democrat) is elected Commonwealth's attorney by 183 majority over W. W. Logan, the incumbent. J. C. Hutcheson, Republican treasurer, is re-elected over Captain George W. Koons by 23 majority, and Daniel Spiker, Republican sheriff, is re-elected over John E. Rogers by 665 majority.

SMYTH

MARION, VA., November 5.—Returns from practically all precincts in Smyth county show the election of county officers as follows: Treasurer, J. L. O. Anderson, Republican, over George W. Wright, the present incumbent; sheriff, J. H. Rouse, Republican, over J. V. Richardson, Democrat; Commonwealth's attorney, G. H. Fudg, Democrat, over N. C. St. John, Democrat, majority small. G. W. Richardson, Democrat, is defeated by J. H. Wissler, Republican, for the Legislature. A. T. Lincoln, Republican candidate for Senate from Smyth and Washington counties, carries Smyth county by eighty-one over J. D. Buchanan, Democrat.

SPOTSYLVANIA AND FREDERICKSBURG

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., November 5.—Seven out of twelve precincts in Spotsylvania county give Evans, Independent, for House of Delegates, over Goolrick, Democrat, sixty-seven majority. Goolrick's majority in Fredericksburg was overcome by Evans's majority in Spotsylvania. Goolrick is elected.

STAFFORD AND KING GEORGE

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., November 5.—Stafford and King George gave Moncre, Democrat, for House of Delegates, 21 majority over Chesley, Republican, with two Republican precincts in the latter county yet to be heard from.

Stafford county elects W. D. Reamy, Democrat, county treasurer over Douglas Coakley, Republican, by 121 majority. Moncre, Democrat, was elected sheriff over Knight, Republican, by 21 majority.

SUSSEX AND GREENSVILLE

WAVERY, VA., November 5.—Light vote polled in Sussex to-day; all nominees of Democratic primary were elected. R. A. Brown, Democrat, defeated George E. Grizzard, Independent, by 210 majority for county treasurer, and J. S. Weaver, Democrat, defeated J. S. Jones, Independent, by 223 majority for House of Delegates.

EMPORIA

EMPORIA, VA., November 5.—The election to-day passed off quietly in Greenville county. Commonwealth's Attorney W. M. Powell was elected by a large majority over his opponents, Mr. Taylor and ex-Judge Barham.

The regular nominee, J. S. Weaver's vote for the House will thrill the Independent candidate, E. S. Jones. Sheriff Samuel Lee and County Treasurer B. W. Wyche had no opposition, but received a large complimentary vote.

Surry and Prince George

SURRY, C. H., VA., November 5.—There was no contest over the legislative ticket in the Surry-Prince George district. The Democratic candidates were elected.

Washington and Bristol

BRISTOL, TENN., November 5.—Returns from only two precincts in Washington county were received to-night. They indicate a small Republican majority in the county. The Democrats and Republicans are both claiming the election of their candidates for the Legislature. In Lincoln, Independent, and in the Senate from Washington and Smyth counties and Bristol, as indicated by returns received. The results are very close between the Republican and Democratic candidates for the House.

The entire Republican ticket is elected in Smyth county, with the exception of Commonwealth's attorney, G. H. Fudge, Democrat, who is elected to this position without opposition. Lincoln's majority in Smyth is 84. Wissler, for the House, carried the county by 125. Anderson was elected treasurer by 101. J. H. Rouse has sixty majority for sheriff.

The Democrats carried the county with the exception of the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, M. Ely being elected to this position.

BRISTOL

BRISTOL, VA., November 5.—Bristol voted as follows: For Senator, Republican (Democrat), 238; Lincoln (Republican), 199. For House of Delegates, Roberts (Democrat), 317; Stuart (Democrat), 266; Millard (Republican), 217; Brooks (Republican), 148.

WYTHE

WYTHEVILLE, VA., November 5.—Nine precincts in Wythe county indicate the election of Robinson, Republican, for the House of Delegates, from 200 to 300 majority, over Horan, Democrat; Shaffer, Republican, for Commonwealth's attorney, over Fulton, Democrat, by 250 majority.

The vote for treasurer between Crockett, Democrat, and Hillsberry, Republican, and Brown, Democrat, and Wilson, Republican, for sheriff will be close and requires official count. Three of the five supervisors elected are Democrats. All returns from all precincts in Wythe county give Brown, Democrat, for sheriff, 14 majority. Crockett, Democrat, defeated for treasurer by 43 votes.

WISE

NORTON, VA., November 5.—Wise county has undoubtedly elected the entire Republican ticket. Hamilton, Republican, is ahead of Stewart, Democrat, 218, for treasurer; Alderson, Republican, is elected over Kelly, Democrat, by between 400 and 500, for Commonwealth's attorney; Kiser, Republican, is elected over Gilliam, Independent Republican, 400, for sheriff. A small vote was polled throughout the county, and returns are coming in slowly. Noel, Republican, for State Senate, had no opposition. Sutherland, Republican, for the House, for Wise and Dickenson counties, had no opposition.

DEMOCRATIC GAIN IN EAST GENERAL

publicans swept all their candidates with one exception into office at Buffalo. Elmira returned to the Democratic column so far as the majority was concerned. Republicans elected a city and county ticket in Albany.

For the first time in fourteen years the Republicans elected a Mayor in Utica, and for the first time in seventeen years the Democrats carried Schenectady. The Republicans were victorious in Ulster county and elected their candidate for Mayor in Kingston. In Rochester the Republicans elected a Mayor, but the Democrats carried the Common Council.

Despite the protests of the united clergy, the Democrats elected Auburn elected a brewer for Mayor. In Troy Mayor Elias P. Mann was re-elected by the Republicans with a plurality of 850.

FUSION TICKET BEATEN

Tammany Democrats Overwhelmed Thomsen and Bruce Both.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Sufficiently complete returns to make certain the ultimate results show that the Republicans and Independence League fusion in New York county was defeated to-day by a straight Democratic ticket; that the Independence League ticket for Associate Justices of the Court of Appeals was overwhelmingly beaten by the identical tickets of the Republicans and Democrats, and that there will be a slight change in the make-up of the State Assembly.

In New York City the Independence League Court of Appeals ticket was defeated, and the league vote up-State was light.

In the city interest centered in the county fight in which the Republican and Independent forces of the county opposed the Tammany ticket. James W. Gerard, Democrat, was elected to the Supreme Court with a wide margin over M. Linn Bruce, Republican. Foley defeated for the sheriff's office the fusion candidate, Maximilian F. Thomsen, who is also prominent in the Independence League.

Early returns gave Foley a big lead, but this later was scaled down until 700 of the 813 precincts in the county showed a margin for the Democratic candidate of 25,000.

Edward T. Bartlett and Willard Bartlett, nominated by both Republican and Democratic parties, were elected to the Court of Appeals over Reuben Demarest, a former Republican, and Bryan Demarest, a former Republican, both of whom were nominated by the Independence League.

The election was unusually quiet and the vote light. There were a considerable number of arrests for illegal voting.

Chairman Herbert Parsons, of the New York Republican county committee, tonight declared that the fusion with the Independence League, said late tonight that he believed that several Republican Assemblymen had been chosen by fusion. He said, "The results would have been even less favorable."

CONCEDE JOHNSON'S VICTORY

Mayor Tom L. Johnson was today re-elected for the fourth time as Mayor of Cleveland in a hard-fought battle, in which the Republican ticket was headed by Congressman Theodore E. Burton, chairman of the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors.

Chairman Burton, Baker, of the Republican Committee, conceded the election of Johnson by 5,000 plurality. At the Johnson headquarters his majority is placed at a higher figure, and the election of the entire city ticket, including Mayor Johnson, 5,000 or more. The Democrats elect a majority of the Councilmen also.

Congressman Burton made considerable gains over the vote of two years ago, when William H. Boyd was the Republican candidate, but the gain was not sufficient to overcome the strong Johnson lead. At midnight the official count on 130 of 244 precincts gives Johnson 5,234.

The present ratio, if maintained, will give Johnson a majority of over 8,000.

CINCINNATI

CINCINNATI, O., November 5.—The election of Colonel Leopold Markbreit, Republican candidate for Mayor, is conceded by the opposition parties. Early returns indicate that his plurality will be not less than 10,000.

WILMINGTON, DEL., November 5.—City of Wilmington complete: License, 11,023; abstinent, 7,543.

Reports from the State indicate that Newcastle county, outside of Wilmington, voted for license, and that Kent and Sussex counties voted against license.

Reports from Dover say Kent county is dry by 1,500 majority. Sussex county is dry by 6,000 majority.

CROTHERS IS ELECTED

Democrat Chosen Governor by Majority of Over 6,000.

BALTIMORE, MD., November 6.—Sixty before 1 A. M. only about 10 per cent. of the city precincts have been heard from, and no figures whatever have come from the counties in the State. The city precincts reported, which are scattered, indicate a very slight Republican gain as compared with the majority election, when McMahon, Democrat, won by about 4,500.

Conservative estimates, based on very meagre information, indicate that Crotthers, Democrat, for Governor, will carry the State and city by from 6,000 to 8,000.

Returns from the counties indicate that ex-Governor John Walter Smith

The Careful Physician

A doctor recently said:

"I know that if I could keep Coffee from most of my patients the remedies would be more effective."

That's because Coffee contains a drug—Caffeine—which interferes with the success of other drugs the doctor may be giving the patient. Many persons do not realize they are taking a drug into their systems when they drink Coffee or Tea, but such is the fact.

Some of the effects of the Coffee drug are: Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, Shortness of Breath, Insomnia, Sour Stomach, Loss of Natural Appetite, Cold Hands and Feet, Indigestion, Bowel Troubles, etc., etc.

Common sense would suggest the disuse of Coffee when such symptoms show themselves, before the disease becomes permanent. It is well to heed the doctor's advice when he says:

"Cut Out Coffee if it disagrees"

It's an easy and pleasant Task when the further suggestion is observed:
